

GREEN RACINE

LEARN AND SHARE PROGRAMS

RACINE PUBLIC LIBRARY: 2ND MONDAYS AT 6:00

September 12, 2016

“The Old Fashioned Fun of Canning
Fruits and Vegetables”

Colleen Patterson and Jessica True, Permaculture Designs

October 10, 2016

“An Eco-friendly Diet: Good for you,
Good for Earth.”

*Birgitte Christensen,
Happy Healthy Way*

November 14, 2016

“Greening Your Whole House:
Attic to Basement”

Dave Rhoads, Greening Greater Racine

January 9, 2017

“Lower Your Energy Bill—By Half!”

Casey McIntosh, Energy Consultant

February 13, 2017

“Garbage into Gold: How to Compost
Your Food & Yard Waste”

*Susan Obry,
Master Composter, UW Extension*

March 13, 2017

“How, When, and Where to Plant a Tree”

*Matt Koepnick,
Urban Forester, City of Racine*

April 10, 2017

“Get an Eco-Green Yard—and Keep Our Waters Clean”

Allison Thielen, Root Pike Watershed Initiative Network

May 8, 2017

“How to Grow and Cook
Your Own Organic Food”

*Rejane Cytacki,
Director, Eco-Justice Center*

June 12, 2017

“Good Plants, Bad Plants: How to Know
Which is Which and Why It Matters”

*Melissa Warner,
Weed Out! Racine*

In cooperation with Greening Greater Racine: An inclusive environmental grass-roots movement of faith communities, environmental organizations, businesses, government agencies, schools, and citizens working to inspire, educate, and motivate people to take actions that make possible a healthier and more sustainable life in greater Racine now and in the future.

www.greeninggreaterracine.weebly.com